Welcome to Leeds Children's Theatre's production of

THE BFG

BY ROALD DAHL

ADAPTED FOR THE STAGE BY DAVID WOOD

In a quest to save the children of England from a horrible fate, the BFG and young "human bean" Sophie set out together to defeat the grisly child-eating giants; Bloodbottler, Fleshlumpeter, Bonecruncher, Meatdrinker, Childchewer, and Gizzardgulper. In this whirl-wind adventure, Sophie finds herself transported from her bedroom to the BFG's cave in Giant Country, then to Dream Country, before finally arriving at Buckingham Palace where they are helped in their fight by the Queen of England and the Heads of the Army and Airforce with their "bellypoppers".

The play you are about to watch is the culmination of months of hard work in rehearsals and behind the scenes building scenery, making props and costumes and putting all of those little touches in to what makes a performance. Leeds Children's Theatre is so much more than the two plays we produce each year for our audiences to enjoy. Our membership ranges from 8 to 80+ and our members don't just perform on stage; they volunteer backstage, run our weekly and monthly drama workshops, and make up the committee who handle the society's day to day running.

We are always looking to welcome new members to our society so if you are interested in joining the team, please get in touch via our website:
